

Doughboys Attend Church With German Town Folk

Populace "Warming Up" to Americans and Mothers Smile as Children Fraternize With Our Men; 40,000 U. S. Troops Pass Through Coblenz

COBLENZ, Dec. 15 (By The Associated Press).—Approximately forty thousand American troops have arrived at Coblenz since the advance guard reached here a week ago. A large number of these troops have passed through the city, while considerable forces will remain here temporarily.

The citizens of Coblenz got their first glimpse of American airplanes to-day, several of the machines flying over the Rhine toward the bridgehead boundary and then returning.

The officers and clerks of the Third Army arrived here this morning, followed by trucks loaded with equipment and office supplies. The largest hotel in Coblenz, overlooking the Rhine and the two bridges where most of the troops cross the river, has been taken over as quarters for Third Army officers. The headquarters of the Third Army is in a government building adjoining the hotel.

By noon the Third Army was in communication with the back areas by telephone, telegraph and wireless. Sunday various detachments of infantry and artillery passed through Coblenz on their way to join the divisions east of the Rhine. Churchgoers viewed the marching troops with interest. Late in the afternoon the 3d

Division, which had been along the Rhine south of Coblenz, marched through the city, headed by a band, each musician mounted on a gray horse. The 3d Division crossed the Moselle north of Coblenz, where it has taken up a position along the Rhine in support of the troops within the bridgehead.

On the first Sunday were shown the results of this policy. While the people of Coblenz are still somewhat resentful in their attitude, the residents of the smaller towns evinced none of this hostility. Dressed in their Sunday clothes, the Germans attended church services and appeared surprised to find among the congregations in some of the places a few of the enlisted men.

In the afternoon, the children in the villages openly fraternized with any of the soldiers who would permit it. The soldiers who would permit it, clambered over the trucks and demanded their turn to be taken into the seats of the guns in the artillery parks, and they were unreprieved by their parents, who smiled their tolerance. The older among the men and women, not only made no objection to billings, as did many in Coblenz and Treves, but frequently showed a desire to make the men feel at home.

Wherever bands were in action the people crowded the street corners to listen to the music, instead of hurrying to their homes, a situation that did not exist when the invasion of German territory began two weeks ago. The royal castle in Coblenz, known as one of the former German Emperor's summer palaces, is now under guard by American troops. The palace is on the banks of the Rhine, a stone's throw from the business centre of Coblenz.

By decree of the American military authorities, the clocks of Coblenz, Treves and elsewhere in the occupied Rhine were set back an hour to-day. The change from the German time was made so that the clocks within the bridgehead and the district west of the French time or the time used by the American expeditionary force.

Jobs for 4,062 Cripples

Henry Ford Will Employ Them, No Matter How Maimed

(Special Correspondence of The Tribune) DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 17.—There are jobs waiting for exactly 4,062 maimed and crippled soldiers at the automobile plant of Henry Ford, in this city, it was announced to-day. No matter how serious his disability may be, every returned soldier will be given an opportunity to earn his own living in one of the big Ford industrial plants.

Even men minus both arms or both legs will find remunerative employment. At the present time, it is stated, 18 per cent of the working force of the company is composed of men who are partly disabled, it being Mr. Ford's theory that all a man wants is a chance; he doesn't want charity.

Hundreds of soldiers from other states, who have been mustered out of service, are flocking to Detroit for employment, according to the Board of Commerce of Detroit. Employers, however, are giving first preference to those whose homes are here.

Lieut. Weston Dies Of Wounds in U. S. Hospital in France

Was Shot During Fight in Argonne Forest; Several Other New Yorkers Make the Supreme Sacrifice

Report was received here yesterday of the death in an American emergency hospital in France of First Lieutenant Charles A. Weston on October 18. He had been wounded a few days before, immediately after his regiment had fought its way through the Argonne Forest.

Lieutenant Weston was a son of James Weston, a former Assistant District Attorney of New York, and was a nephew of Delancey Nicol. After being graduated from the Virginia Military Academy Lieutenant Weston came to New York and made his home at Royalton Hall, 44 West Forty-fourth Street. He went to the first Plattsburgh camp and won his commission there. He was overseas last May.

Lieutenant Daniel M. Connolly, killed on October 18 while leading his company, lived with an aunt, Mrs. Marie Belger, at 317 Seventy-eighth Street, Brooklyn. Lieutenant Connolly was twenty-four years old. He was a graduate of Manual Training High School and attended an engineering class at Cooper Union.

In a letter from the colonel of Lieutenant Connolly's regiment his aunt learned her nephew had been killed while leading his men in a fight against a small woods containing machine gun nests. The fog lifted and the first burst of flame from the woods saw him get up and plunged ahead. Another bullet knocked him down, but he got to his feet once more. A third bullet killed him.

Lieutenant Charles F. Hauptner, reported as having died from pneumonia on November 29, was just recovering from wounds received in September when he fell ill. He was twenty-four years old and lived with his mother, Mrs. S. L. Hauptner, at 528 Riverside Drive. He enlisted as a private in 1916.

Lieutenant Stephen W. Dickey, killed in action on September 27, was twenty-one years old. He lived at 37 East Fifty-first Street. He was graduated from Harvard in 1918. He received his commission at Camp Upton. He went to France in April and was killed in the Argonne Forest.
